At a pretrial conference on August 2, 2005, defendant Charley K. Patris orally moved to amend his curfew hours. The Court granted the motion. After some confusion as to the hours of the curfew and whether defendant was still subject to home electronic monitoring, the probation office requested a clarification of this particular condition of release. The Court agreed and issued the following amended condition of release.

It is ORDERED that defendant is still subject to home electronic monitoring under section (7)(t) of the Court's Order Setting Conditions of Release filed on January 21, 2005 .
